E-mail address

Please give brief details of your previous work experience, whether paid or voluntary.

What particularly interests you about volunteering at The Red House?

What skills and interests do you feel you would bring to your voluntary work at The Red House?

What kind of time commitment would be able to make? Are any days of the week or times better for you than others?

In common with most other heritage organisations we ask for the contact details of two people who we may approach for a reference.
